

Access into Belfast

By Air

Belfast is easily accessible from major cities in the UK, Europe the USA and Canada with regular scheduled flights coming into both Belfast City and Belfast International Airports. Direct access is available from Newark/New York with Continental airlines; and directly from Canada, Toronto and Vancouver with Zoom airlines. There are flights to Belfast from many UK regional airports and travel from most UK destinations takes just over 1 hour.

George Best Belfast City Airport is situated just three miles from the city centre. The Airport Express 600 bus service runs from the Airport terminal to Belfast city centre every 20 minutes (06.00 - 22.05) Monday to Friday. Please check the timetable for services on Saturdays and Sundays. A shuttle bus service operates between the Airport Terminal and the adjacent rail halt at Sideman. A rail service operates every 30 minutes (06.00 - 23.00) Monday to Friday, to Central and Victoria Street Stations. Please check the timetable for services on Saturdays and Sundays.

Belfast International Airport at Aldergrove is 30 minutes drive via the M2 Motorway. The Airbus service now operates a 24 hour service between the Airport and Belfast city centre with buses departing every 10 minutes (06.50 - 18.15) Monday to Friday. Please check the timetable for services before or after these times and on Saturdays and Sundays.

For those delegates flying into Dublin International Airport it takes approximately two hours from Belfast by road or rail, with regular and direct coach transfers running from the airport to Belfast city.
